

Mr. PHAM HOAI CHUNG

Deputy Director General, Transport Development and Strategy (TDSI)

Mr. Phạm Hoài Chung began his career at Red River Incorporation – Ministry of Construction in 2002 as an Engineer participated in transport construction projects and has been promoted to Vice President from 2005. Then in 2008, he had held a position as an Expert at Transport Development & Strategy Institute – Ministry of Transport (TDSI).

Throughout many years of working experiences, he had appointed as positions in many departments in TDSI included Deputy Director of Centre for Local Transport Development Research in 2009, Director of Centre for Urban & Rural Transport Development in 2013, Deputy Director General of TDSI in 2020. And now he is holding a position of Acting Director General at Transport Development and Strategy Institute.

Mr. Phạm Hoài Chung has finished his doctoral degree from Transport University, Hanoi, Vietnam in Construction Management in 2016.