

Mr. WATANABE Shige

Minister,
Embassy of Japan in Vietnam

He was born in 1969 Tokyo, Japan. He had finished his bachelor's degree in Law at Hitotsubashi University. After graduated, he had joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Japan in April 1994. Then in June 1997, He was appointed as Second Secretary of Embassy of Japan in Saudi Arabia.

In August 2006, He was appointed to First Secretary at Delegation of Japan to the Conference of Disarmament. Also appointed to Counselor of Embassy of Japan in Iran in August 2008. He has been working for the Embassy of Japan and Ministry of Foreign Affairs in several positions before appointed as Minister at the Embassy of Japan in Vietnam in July 2022 and he is still holding the position at the present.